

And I was walking through icy streams
That took my breath away
Moving slowly through westward water
Over glacial plains

And I've walked off you
And I've walked off an old me
Oh me, oh my, I thought it was a dream
So it seemed

And now, breathe deep
I'm inhaling
It's you and I, there's air in between
Leave me be
I'm exhaling
It's you and I, there's air in between
It's you and I, there's air in between

And cut my hair so I could rock back and forth
Without thinking of you
Learned to talk and say
Whatever I wanted to

And I've walked off you
And I've walked off an old me
Oh me, oh my, I thought it was a dream
So it seemed

And now, breathe deep
I'm inhaling
It's you and I, there's air in between
Leave me be
I'm exhaling
It's you and I, there's air in between
It's you and I, there's air in between
It's you and I, there's air in between
