Amber Run

I think I'm drowning
And I'm in too deep
I tried to make you up
I see you in my sleep
You're something beautiful
That I can't escape
A contradiction
A game I can't play

I lie awake at night
Suffocating, paralysed
Do I haunt you, too?

Or am I only here to entertain you?
Or am I only here to entertain you?

I think I'm choking
And I can't breathe
You're an addiction
More than a drug to me
You're something beautiful
That I can't escape
I cannot break the spell
That you have on me

I lie awake at night
Suffocating, paralysed
Do I haunt you, too?

Or am I only here to entertain you?
Or am I only here to entertain you?
I'd have lived and died by your side
Am I only here to entertain you?

I couldn't love you better
Am I only here?
Why am I here?
I couldn't love you better

Am I only here to entertain you?
Am I only here to entertain you?
I'd have lived and died by your side
Am I only here to entertain you?
