Heaven

Amber Run

All I see, girl, is in black and white
In the darkness of the night
It seems that I've been chasing angels
For what seems the entire of my life.

All because heaven is on fire,
Don't you know?
My heart, it's got a fever,
I can't let you go.

All I see, girl, is in technicolor
And it's you that burns brightest of all
Turn away, look again, your face is Reflected in the sweat on the walls.

It's in my bones, in the water,
In my skin, in every corner
Like a shade, girl
It's gonna colour you in.

It's in my bones, in the water,
In my skin, in every corner
Like a shade, girl
I'm gonna colour you in.

All I see is black and white
In the darkness of the night
And I've been chasing angels all my life.
And now that heaven is on fire
And the world's technicolor
Oh, I'll be chasing angels all my life.
