

I Hope It's Not Like This Forever

Amber Run

I can't be the only one
Unsatisfied and wanting more
Than serving drinks for no money
What a modern tragedy

A friday night
A creeping gloom
That's when life threw me you
And from that day you owned me
Feel like I did at eighteen

Honey you're pretty you're gorgeous
You're practically perfect, you're flawless
To think that right now you're a stranger
I hope it's not like this forever

I can't be the only one
Unsatisfied and wanting more
Than playing understudy
In my own dark comedy

And that is why when I saw you
I couldn't help but start playing through
You dancing in the kitchen
A drunk midnight rendition

Honey you're pretty you're gorgeous
You're practically perfect, you're flawless
To think that right now you're a stranger
I hope it's not like this forever

Honey you're pretty you're gorgeous
You're practically perfect, you're flawless
To think that right now you're a stranger
I hope it's not like this forever

I hope it's not like this forever
