

Stranger

Amber Run

And if love seems like a stranger
That comes knocking at your door
Like an old, forgotten treasure
That we've all been looking for

And if you don't know where you're going
Your lock without a key
If the road keeps getting longer
Let love come easily

Love, sometimes
You don't get what you need
But sometimes love comes easily

You finally feel like strangers
And the devil's song is singing
If the night keeps growing darker
Let love come easily

But sometimes
You don't get what you need
Yeah, sometimes love comes easily
Love comes easily

Comes easily
Yeah, love comes easily