

More Than We Can Bear

Amber

What's happening to us
Drowning in banality
Lost inside our lust
It is all I've left to give

You know me too well
Even all the times I was unpredictable
You see right through me
There is nothing more I've left to give

Go ahead and spoil the end for me
No more tears no more lies
For all I know it was carved in stone from the beginning