

Melodies For The Devil

Amduscia

crucify my soul by your hands i don't believe it, i have my destiny in your faulty body tell me why? in this way nobody is feeling you tell my why?
come on now take my body, nobody`s feeling you you think that this thing is a lie i was watching in my dying pain i have been chosen to die i'll return to hell

i'm breaking blessed stigmas like a devil signs your prayers are melodies for the devil

crap your lost, is the only thing that i am thingking merciless vain reign

i lost goodness for you my sin is to know oneself and see the rotting inside of me you destroy my mind

in your name of god
i can see you crap
in your name of god
fucking servant

condemn me in your game that you'll believe this is a mourning from which you'll never be again you'll scratch your legs you'll swallow my sperm what's your vanity?

this is your reality

shout, i know you`ll lose i know you`ll bleed
