

Afraid

Amel Larrieux

I dream of you nights
and daytime too Like someone slipped me something and that something's you

Almost walked into a wall imagining your embrace Have to snap myself out of the thought of your lips an their heavenly daze

And the sensation is real
The blood rushes into each place as if you were here Elevating me to Closed eyed elation
Heartbeat is racing
This evocation

Got me afraid of the rapture stirring inside of me Got me afraid of what I'm gonna do if I get you to see Got me afraid of you you're so fine sometimes I forget to breathe Got me afraid that wherever you are is wherever I have to be

Faces are fading replaced with yours Bodies are changing into your beautiful form Oh to feel your pulse beating inside mine Want you to press against me like if you don't you'll die

And the sensation is real
The blood rushes into
Elevating me to
Closed eyed elation
Heartbeat is racing

Got me afraid of
the rapture stirring inside of me
Got me afraid of
what I'm gonna do if I get you to see Got me afraid of you
you're so fine sometimes I forget to breathe Got me afraid that
wherever you are is wherever I have to be

You must be kin to the moon
'Cause when you're up and out and full I could be anywhere and feel the pull whisperin' to my ocean

Your glow is nectar flowin' into my spine
and this is why I am Afraid of

the rapture stirring inside of me Got me afraid of
what I'm gonna do if I get you to see Got me afraid of you you're so damn fine sometimes I forget to breathe Got me afraid that
wherever you are is wherever I have to be

Wherever you are is wherever I have to be....
Wherever you are
wherever you are is wherever I have to be....
Wherever you are
(Is wherever I have to be
If you want to be with me
I love you Need to be with me Yeah, yeah, yeah)
Wherever you are is wherever I have to be...
Wherever you are...
Wherever...
(You, you, you...
Wherever I wanna be I wanna be, I wanna be) Wherever, wherever...
Wherever you are...
Where, yeah...
