

Just Can't Take the Rumours

Amelia Lily

Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish
Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish

I'm tryna find the words to say
But I am running out on you
I'm fighting with the jealousy
So can we find another way
And can we try to make it through
Don't wanna be the enemy

I know that I am falling with every little thing you say
These feelings just keep growing so shoulda let them fade away
I'm hearing people talking, saying that I'm just a phase
I'm hoping that there's something getting in the way

Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish
Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish

You're standing outside my door
You're telling me the things will change
Forgave you but I can't forget
There's something that I can't ignore
And baby who's the one to blame
Cause I ain't got no regrets

I know that I am falling with every little thing you say
These feelings just keep growing so shoulda let them fade away
I'm hearing people talking, saying that I'm just a phase
I'm hoping that there's something getting in the way

Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish
Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish

Cause everyone said I have to face
The waste of time if you're not gonna stay
See, I'm the one that you want and now embrace
That you don't wanna ever ever give it up

Let him in, let him go

Try a little harder for me
Try a little harder, try a little harder for me
Try a little harder for me
Try a little harder, try a little harder for me

Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish
Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish
Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish
Shoulda let him in, Shoulda let him go
Shoulda let him stay til my heart explode
Now I can't can't take the rumours
And I'm just just being foolish
