

name everywhere

Amelia Moore

I must've misheard your mouth
'Cause the way you pronounced
Almost sounded like somethin' it wasn't, no, oh
And sorry if I double take when I'm readin' a page
And a six letter name looks familiar, too familiar

'Cause my imagination has gotten creative Must be the universe, playin' and playin' along
Yeah, 'cause

I swear I see your name everywhere
Swear I see your name everywhere (Everywhere)
I swear I see your name everywhere
Swear I see your name, your name
I swear I see your name everywhere
Swear I see your name everywhere (Everywhere)
Even, even if it's not there

I've got it down to a science
My mind sees the vowels and consonants
Like they're exclusively yours
And you do a good job of hiding it
I don't know how, 'cause I cry just about every day of the week
Every time that I drink and it won't even stop when I sleep

'Cause my imagination can't seem to replace it
It's like the universe won't let me move on
Yeah, 'cause

I swear I see your name everywhere
Swear I see your name everywhere (Everywhere)
I swear I see your name everywhere
Swear I see your name, your name
I swear I see your name everywhere
Swear I see your name everywhere (Everywhere)
Even, even if it's not there

Everywhere, oh
No, oh, ooh, yeah
Ooh, everywhere
Everywhere, yeah (Everywhere)
Even if it's not there
