

push up bra

Amelia Moore

You remind me of my push up bra
Only hold me up when I put you on
I feel so much better, better, better
Every time I take you off

Boy, you love to shower me in compliments
Lingerie and chocolate, building up my confidence
The problem is you all for show
Cheap material
So uncomfortable
How spineless, backless
Saying anything to get me on your mattress
There's a razor-sharp wire in this fabric
And it's rubbing me wrong, so I'm cutting you off

Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh
Something 'bout you, aye-yeah

You remind me of my push up bra
Only hold me up when I put you on
I feel so much better, better, better
Every time I take you off
You remind me of my push up bra
Make a big deal out of something small
I feel so much better, better, better
Every time I take you off

Looking for somebody who can fit me just right
My body, my mind
Tell me why is it so hard to find
It's like they outta my size
Damn right, I'm a 32c
Up tight when you come around me
Sometimes you gotta let the girls breath
Ooh, you gotta let them girls breath

You remind me of my push up bra
Only hold me up when I put you on
I feel so much better, better, better
Every time I take you off
You remind me of my push up bra
Make a big deal out of something small
I feel so much better, better, better
Every time I take you off

You remind me of my push up bra
You remind me, yeah
