

Christopher

Amen Dunes

Christopher fought
With big allie too
In his little mind
He meant something to her

Now he sits there and cries
In the pit of his bed
He's a man to ignore

I heard your stories
And nobody cares
Are you fit for my mind
Are you tinted aquarius

I don't knock at no doors
I am quietly shared
I'm for people who know

Should
If I die, I
Chris
If I die
Chris
If you die, I

Chris
All this time
You never learned from me

I took the fall
When christopher said
That he thought he had died
From something I gave him

But I'll open the door
And I'll do it again
And I'm up till tomorrow

I heard your stories
And nobody cares
Are you fit for my mind
Are you tinted aquarius

I don't knock at no doors
I am quietly shared
I'm for people who know

Should
If I die, I
Chris
If I die
Chris
If you die, I

Should
If I die, I
Chris

If I die
Chris
If you die, I

Chris
A thousand times
Better you than me
