

Lower Mind

Amen Dunes

Oh let the lower mind come
When you leave it just unreal does
When you give it sweetly
Keep my king young
And you spill it from your tongue
We would all like the lake of love
But we really want to jump
Oh deep in the lower mind love
I could use you when I'm done
I don't need to listen
I don't need to listen
I don't need to listen
To a beast under the sun
