

Change Is Always

Amenra

And it is bound to bring me down
And I am bound to let you go
And it is bound to bring me down

I wish it might
I wish I may into you
Right by your side
I am your shadow

And I forget sometimes that all your time cannot be mine
And I forget sometimes that all your time cannot be mine
And I forget sometimes that all your time cannot be mine
And I forget sometimes that all your time cannot be mine
And I forget sometimes that all your time cannot be mine

Standing still amidst
A commotion while every night
I lie awake
So long
Farewell

Standing still amidst
A commotion while every night
I lie awake
So long
Farewell
Goodnight
