

All I Needed

American Aquarium

I turn the radio on
And out come a song I didn't recognize
The way the singer was singing
My heart was connected, I was hypnotized
How can something that I've never heard in my life
Pull me back into the light?

It's a time, it's a place
A lyrical sucker-punch to the face
I was runnin' on empty and life was really gettin' me down
It was a hook, it was a line
It was a savior in three quarter time
I was out there losing my mind
When all I needed was a song

It was a spiritual change
I'm no longer the same, yeah, I've turned a page
In one afternoon, a three-minute tune was my coming of age
Its transformative power, I began to devour every painstaking word

It's a time, it's a place
A lyrical sucker-punch to the face
I was runnin' on empty and life was really gettin' me down
It was a hook, it was a line
It was a savior in three quarter time
I was out there losing my mind
When all I needed was a song

It's a time, it's a place
A lyrical sucker-punch to the face
I was runnin' on empty and life was really gettin' me down
It was a hook, it was a line
It was a savior in three quarter time
I was out there losing my mind
When all I needed was a song
I was out there losing my mind
When all I needed was a song
