Everything Everything

American Authors

I spent my whole life dreaming of a perfect world
Where I thought you'd be (thought you'd be)
I spent my whole life waiting for a moment
With you next to me (next to me)

I pull you closer and closer
Closer and closer
I don't want to let you go

Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
'Cause you're my everything, everything
Everything, everything

Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
'Cause you're my everything, everything
Everything, everything

I heard your name up in the sky above the trees
When it came to me (came to me)
I spent my whole life trying to fill my heart
When you're all I need (all I need)

I pull you closer and closer
Closer and closer
I don't want to let you go

Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
'Cause you're my everything, everything
Everything, everything

Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
'Cause you're my everything, everything
Everything, everything

Hey!
Whoo!
Hey!
All right

It took my whole life
It took my whole life
To fall back into you
To fall back into you

I don't want to let you go

Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
Cause you're my everything everything
Everything everything

Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
I don't want to miss out on a single day
Hey yo, hey yo, yo hey
Cause you're my everything everything
Everything everything
