Old punk rock posters on the wall
Made me feel like I'm 10 feet tall
Back then I thought I knew it all
Take off like I'm an astronaut
Got lost up in the stars above
Had no idea who I'd become

But times are so much better now
My dad told me they'd come around
And nothing lasts forever

Moments become memories of the past
But right now we're timeless
Pictures become old photographs
But right now we're priceless
Cuz everything we lived
We never gonna miss
We're timeless
We're timeless

These dreams and hopes we used to have
Change off through time and never last long
High school was so bad
I threw my yearbooks in the trash
I'll never forget my first kiss
I was so nervous that I missed
Old clothes and trailers how we lived
Getting laughed at by rich spoiled kids

But times are so much better now
My dad told me they'd come around
And nothing lasts forever
Not even the ones you love

Moments become memories of the past
But right now we're timeless
Pictures become old photographs
But right now we're priceless
Cuz everything we lived
We never gonna miss
We're timeless
We're timeless

So long, farewell
Doesn't mean it has to end
Only time will tell
So long, farewell
See you down the road again
Only time will tell
Will tell

Moments become memories of the past
But right now we're timeless
Pictures become old photographs
But right now we're priceless
Cuz everything we lived
We never gonna miss

We're timeless
We're timeless
