

Wake Up

American Hi-Fi

Here comes that feeling again, pins and needles moving up my spine

You call it self absorbed, you can call me anything you like
Surrender that embrace, I'll be there to watch the dive
You switched the panic on, no ones getting out of here alive

Wake up, wake up this is the bitter end
You're past the point of no return
Wake up wake up it's up to you my friend
If you've had enough I'll take my turn

Hello miss misery, you're the cause and the effect
Distorted melodies, it's the only way that you connect
You don't know how to connect!

Wake up, wake up this is the bitter end
You're past the point of no return
Wake up wake up it's up to you my friend
If you've had enough I'll take my turn

Go!

Wake up, wake up this is the bitter end
Wake up, wake up this is the bitter end
You're past the point of no return
Wake up wake up it's up to you my friend
If you've had enough I'll take my turn
If you've had enough I'll take my turn
If you've had enough I'll take my turn
