

Tonight

Amiel

Open the door
Let the dawn inside
You've been up all night again
And don't remember cryin'
Now I'm here for you
And the day will break so you don't have to

Dreams have fallen in your head
And I know there have been times when I've felt much the same
And I would just take another moment
Stay, stay
Understand we'll be okay

Let me take your hand tonight
Everything you feel's gonna be alright
Tell me what you need
'Cause tonight
Everything you feel's gonna be alright
Alright

It's been so long that you can't disguise
All the tiny things that tear you up inside
You smile so paper thin
And grade against the walls within

Dreams have fallen in your head
And I know there have been times when I've felt much the same
And I would just take another moment
Stay, stay
Understand we'll be okay

Let me take your hand tonight
Everything you feel's gonna be alright
Tell me what you need
'Cause tonight
Everything you feel's gonna be alright
Alright

Alright
Alright
Alright

Dreams have fallen in your head
But I know you'll be okay

Let me take your hand tonight
Everything you feel's gonna be alright
Tell me what you need
'Cause tonight
Everything you feel's gonna be alright
Alright

Tonight
Everything you feel's gonna be alright
'Cause tonight

Alright
