Amigo The Devil

Driving 'round areas
Where women'll only please you in exchange for some small change
It's not really easy as a white male

Tonight's no different
I eat dinner, excuse myself
I tell my wife and kids I gotta go to the office
The kids stare and they don't really care anyway
I don't even know what they're learning in school

I fill up the Mercedes, fucking gas prices
This means I'll have to go a little cheap tonight
Just find her and fuck her and head home

On my drive home I can still taste her
She was dirty, she was sloppy
I begin driving sloppy

When I get to a red light, I'm still not out of the area
My door opens and someone seems pretty firm
There's a gun to my cheek and he yells
"Get the fuck out of the car"

"Okay," I tell him
I thank him, I get out, and he drives off
This made things a lot easier for me
I wish I could see his reaction when the cops find her body in the trunk
