Everyone Gets Left Behind

Amigo The Devil

Remember how it felt when we were little?
We swore that we would never grow up
Until we learned that the worst of the world is in people we lo ve

Got cold in our heart but our body was kind
So we drink and raise hell and find something to fuck to surviv e

Sometimes we're drunker than a little
And I swear I don't have to throw up (liar)
And the best times are always the worst with the people we love

It made sense in our hearts
And we bleed for the night
And no matter how we feel in the morning we know we'll survive

Sometimes we're the leader
Some we're in the middle
Some day everyone gets left behind

Sometimes we're the leader
Some we're in the middle

Now I'm older and the fire feels so little
And time became something to kill
I must have died and gone to heaven
'Cause this is boring as hell

1, 2, 3, 4
Sometimes we're the leader
Some we're in the middle
And some day everyone gets left behind

Sometimes we're the leader
And some day everyone gets left behind
