

Heaven On Fire

Amigo The Devil

I'm tired of being tired of you
I hate the things I put you through
I know that you deserve much more than me

I just can't tell if you're the fool
Or if I've fooled you for so long
That you won't leave

And every night I dream that heaven is on fire
And I can hear you scream like hell
But I'm stuck outside the gate
There's nobody there to let me in to help

At least that's what I say
'Cause things will never go back to before
But I'm terrified to see your face
When you realize I don't love you anymore
Anymore
Anymore
