

My Greatest Trait

Amina Buddafly

You lie, you're lying, you lie
I'm fighting, I fight, fighting
Demons, questions, listen, you win, I quit
I've been over it and somethings gotta give

I've been looking for answers
But sometimes you just gotta let it do what it do
I hope, your next girl is lucky
Cause she'll need it in order to get through to you

So keep on losing me keep on doing things, push me away
Leave, I'm telling myself to be strong it will save the day

It's my greatest trait, I can walk away
I'll leave you alone boy I rather be great
I go cut you off, been training for a lifetime
Now my greatest trait is saying goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye

Lights catching me from every angle
Move out the way you dim my shine
I hope you find what you're looking for
It ain't me it ain't myself or I

So keep gone and apologize boy your pattern says it all
Leave I made up my mind
And once that happens you done dropped that ball

My greatest trait, is I walk away
I'll leave you alone boy I rather be great
I go cut you off, been training for a lifetime
Now my greatest trait is saying goodbye
Goodbye
Goodbye

I ain't goin back in circles not feeling it, it ain't worth it
And maybe you didn't hurt this heart of mine but this is pointless
Move on, we don't go together
I love me first, that's forever

You lie, you're lying, you lie
I'm fighting, I fight, fighting
Demons, questions, listen, you win, I quit
I've been over it and somethings gotta give
