Amina Buddafly

I don't even know what, but there's something about us
Everytime we touch, I'm up on a cloud I
Think I'm on a high whenever you're here by my side
I wanna let the world know but right now

I don't need to hear 'bout what people say,
Couldn't care less 'bout the comments they make
Why don't we keep on without being judged
So no-one can break what we got

Cause I don't need nothing if I got your lovin'
Boy I don't need nothing if I got your lovin'

I don't even know why but somehow I feel it's vital
To protect us on this crazy ride. This time around I'm entitled
To keep my sanity while I get all I need in privacy

Now I can't wait, can't make promises at all
I may slip up and make us official
But for now I'm keeping this on the low
At this time no-one needs to know

Boy I don't need nothing if I got your lovin'
No I don't need nothing if I got your lovin'

I don't need nothing if I got your lovin'
No I don't need nothing if I got your lovin'
I don't need nothing

Nothing
Nothing
Nothing
