

Be Easier On Yourself

Aminé

Be easier on yourself
Just give it time
No feelings final, babe
Things will be fine
Look what you been going through
Some don't survive
It what it is, my babe, how windows make you cry

I'm on if you want to
I'm pullin' up
I'm on if you want do
I'm pullin' up

Movin' buildings make me question my purpose
The smallest things make me feel like I'm not shit
Every time my hands lean on the glass
I think about my fuck-ups in the past
Those windows get me every time
I try and stop 'em, but the tears ain't shy
Standards I got for myself
Most folks'll leave on the shelf
Stress myself with the impossible
When I know it ain't possible
I gotta ease off the gas, just a little
I gotta give myself some time, just a little
I gotta go and pay the God, just a little

Be easier on yourself
Just give it time
No feelings final, babe
Things will be fine
Look what you been going through
Some don't survive
It what it is, my babe, how windows make you cry

I'm on if you want to
I'm pullin' up
I'm on if you want do
I'm pullin' up

You and I both bleed
Don't you know, growin' up means you proceed?
No matter what happens, stay grounded on both feet
I hear my demons callin' to me from the nosebleeds
The way I see myself gotta mean something
I guess I'm going up these says
To my younger self, I would say

Be easier on yourself
Just give it time
No feelings final, babe
Things will be fine
Some don't survive
It what it is, my babe, sometimes, you gotta let it out and cry
