Aminé

You see every heart breaks breaks when it wants to
And when you break that heart
That heart never wants to
Love again
So she singin'

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?
They stare at me while I stare at you
Why can't I keep you safe as my own?
One moment I have you the next you are gone

You wonder why I'm so selfish
And why I never reply to your texts
Is it because I'm still attached to my exes
Girl you're fine but you're so damn restless
And she got an ass with a fat ass
She kill a nigga quicker anytime that she can
I wanna to be alone
She wanna be a hoe
You broke my heart in seconds
And now you want it when I'm gone
I tell her like
Baby you the bombest
You can get it
But I don't want it
So now you singing

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?
They stare at me while I stare at you
Why can't I keep you safe as my own?
One moment I have you the next you are gone

Attention, Attention
That's what every girl and they momma wanna mention
Girl you're fine, girl you're fine
But, I'd never tell you that cause I never wanna sweat ya
Pop it with the pop again
And pop it if you want to pop it
Thinking every bop in a nigga
Popular is your only goal
I tell her what I need when I want
And if you really want me shawty
We can get it on
Baby you the bombest
You can get it
But I don't want it
So now you singing

Why can't you want me like the other boys do?
They stare at me while I stare at you
Why can't I keep you safe as my own?
One moment I have you the next you are gone
