

I know this ship is sailed and this is dead
I'm singing R.I.P, I'm singing R.I.P

I know you gave up long time ago
Boy I'm singing R.I.P, I'm singing R.I.P
All I need's some

Loving, some fucking
And you say this shit don't matter but we always going at it ain't no trustin'
I need some loving, good, good fucking
And we fussing and we fight and you always wonder why
And my Mama told me none of this should come as a surprise

'Cause Love don't come easy, it don't come easy
Love don't come easy, ya giving up easy
Love don't come easy, it don't come easy
It don't come easy, times get hard but nothings' easy

Let's go out
Let's try it out
You don't hear me out
That's why you always run your mouth
We been talking 'bout
Our loves running out
But you don't hear me out, that's why you always run your mouth
And all I needs' some

Loving
Some fucking
And the sex is still compatible but I ain't got no manual for trustin'
I need some loving, good, good fuckin'
You say something isn't right, only fucking and getting high
And my Daddy told me hold your heart in order to survive

'Cause love don't come easy, it don't come easy
Love don't come easy, but giving up easy
Love don't come easy, it don't come easy
It don't come easy, times get hard but nothings' easy

Tell your man you trust him, tell your girl you love her
Tell your Dad you miss him and call your Mom and thank her

Tell your daughter you love her and tell your son you're proud of him
Tell yourself you got this
'Cause these times get hard but nothing's easy
