Familiar

I'm so, so familiar with you
On these days that I get to spend with ya
You remind me why I'm in love with you
(I'm obsessed with you too)

I can't imagine...

You with somebody else
Won't let it happen
If I do... then I'd hate myself
I'm split by a fraction
Deciding things like this is hard to adapt with
Had to adapt with

And the sex is good, and the head is good toooooo
But can you tell me what's the problem?
This really ain't difficuuuuult

But I...

But I...

But I...

But I...

But I...

Seem to fuck it up every time
