Amir Obè

(Yesterday, I called you up 'cause I was tired of bein' alone
Maybe I'm just growin' old and gettin' over you
I don't need you to complete me, I just need me
I just need me)

Self esteem lower than the price is Something bout distance got Amiro feelin' righteous
See you in the morning, dunno what a good night is
In the wagon I just picked up, let you drive it bitch don't got a license
This a 63 not a 550...

(Yesterday, I called you up 'cause I was tired of bein' alone
Maybe I'm just growin' old)

This a 63 not a 550
Heard you in her DM's but she vibe with me
She show me everything, we laugh about it
Thought you was the man, you just rap about it
Thirsty lookin' thirsty
Somebody must be praying for me
Things I don't deserve been stayin' with me
Said I ain't the goat, stop playing with me

(Yesterday, I called you up 'cause I was tired of bein' alone
Maybe I'm just growin' old and gettin' over you
I don't need you to complete me, I just need me
I just need me)

Thumbing through the
Thumbing through the lyrics tryna find a caption
Keep it direct I'm about that action
Rockin' Prada wrong and they call it fashion
Watch em follow suit now all you rappers matching
If they taking shots tell em "fix ya aim"
Middle eastern gold 21k
And a Royal Oak to compliment the chain
Straight from factory, kept it plain
Looking at your bust down, no taste
In and out the city but ain't showing face
Out in Turks & Caics my girl ain't got no waist
All them selfies with her making goes hate
Lookin' like this will make you feel a way
I made it hot, dropped the location
I made it hot but this ain't no vacation

Got her thumbing through the lyrics tryna find a caption, I got her
