

If I Jump

Amir Obè

Pink skies hanging out the balcony
Feel like everybody got it off of me
What's the difference in a dream and nightmare
'Cause either way, it's starting right there
Staring at me, acting like you care about me
Even in my coffin I look sexy (sexy)
Guarantee this coffin, would you blessed it
Fake bitches always mean the most of me
Even though I love them get the most of me
Play dumb, let them close to me
Pink skies hanging out the balcony

Ain't afraid of death, life is but a test
If I jump, don't cry for me
Just remind of me, they try to never mind me
If I jump, live on through this songs
So you'll know just where to find me
If I jump, don't you take the blame
Don't you feel guilty, nothing gon' change
If I jump, play dumb, let them close to me

Pink skies hanging out the balcony
Feel like everybody got it off of me
What's the difference in a dream and nightmare
'Cause either way, it's staring right there
Staring at me

I know is not right
Is he alright
