

SOMEBODY ELSE

Amir Obè

Broke my promise, said you had enough 'cause of me
Watch it fall apart, ain't no us 'cause of me
Bad habits got you doin' drugs 'cause of me
Probably never get to know love 'cause of me

When it's late out
I know how it's gonna play out
Pitch black, I'ma fade out
Tequila for the healin' now
I don't got no feelings now, yeah, ayy

'Cause it's 5 A.M., I'm floatin' and I don't wanna come back down
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else (Yeah)
And it's 6 A.M. feelin' like I'm not even myself right now
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else

Treat me like a joke then you go apologize
Promise that you won't then you go and makeme cry
I never been perfect, so then I sympathize
Damagin' myself just to stay by your side

When it's late out
I know how it's gonna play out
Find somebody else for the take down
Tequila for the healin' now
I don't got no feelings now, yeah, ayy

'Cause it's 5 A.M., I'm floatin' and I don't wanna come back down
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else (Yeah)
And it's 6 A.M. feelin' like I'm not even myself right now
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else

This the thing I don't know
Someone else put you through my light
The second you see me happy
You say "Bring that love back in"
I do, like a dummy
But the truth, you don't love me
And I do, like a dummy
But the truth, you don't love me
So I press on Palo Santo just for a little [?]
But it's lonely by myself, wish I didn't need somebody else

'Cause it's 5 A.M., I'm floatin' and I don't wanna come back down
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else (Yeah)
And it's 6 A.M. feelin' like I'm not even myself right now
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else
