

SOMEBODY ELSE

Amir Obè

Broke my promise, said you had enough 'cause of me
Watch it fall apart, ain't no us 'cause of me
Bad habits got you doin' drugs 'cause of me
Probably never get to know love 'cause of me

When it's late out
I know how it's gonna play out
Pitch black, I'ma fade out
Tequila for the healin' now
I don't got no feelings now, yeah, ayy

'Cause it's 5 A.M., I'm floatin' and I don't wanna come back down
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else (Yeah)
And it's 6 A.M. feelin' like I'm not even myself right now
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else

Sayin', "IHY" but she waitin' for replies
Always kept it honest in the lyrics that I write
So look me in the eyes, look me in the eyes (Yeah)
'Cause even though I tried, I'ma hit you with a lie

When it's late out
I know how it's gonna play out
Find somebody else for the take down
Tequila for the healin' now
I don't got no feelings now, yeah, ayy

'Cause it's 5 A.M., I'm floatin' and I don't wanna come back down
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else (Yeah)
And it's 6 A.M. feelin' like I'm not even myself right now
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else

(You should find somebody else)
(You should find somebody else)
(You should find somebody else)
(You should find somebody else)

When it's late out
I know how it's gonna play out
Find somebody else for the take down
Tequila for the healin' now
I don't got no feelings now, yeah, ayy

'Cause it's 5 A.M., I'm floatin' and I don't wanna come back down
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else (Yeah)
And it's 6 A.M. feelin' like I'm not even myself right now
You should find somebody else, you should find somebody else
