

Silent Waters

Amorphis

A day's light told me, of my son's fate the sun showed the way, grim and severe pulled under the raging, waters my child sank in the drowning, currents my son,
My Son.....

My strength is not enough, my powers failed me
I need the heavens help, I ask for thunder's force I plead for you oh lightning, forge an iron tool a magic rake of dragging, a river for my son
My Son...

God of fire, bring your light
forger of sun, help me now
Guardian of the shore will sleep,
In your warmth..

Lull the folk of cold water,
banish the servants of the dark.
To the river, let me go
and fetch my son away

A rake made of iron, from the Gods of skies the spirit of bright days, sent me the sun Cold troops of Tuoni, cannot stand in my way untouched I shall walk by the river of the night

God of fire, bring your light
forger of sun, help me now
Guardian of the shore will sleep,
In your warmth..

Lull the folk of cold water,
banish the servants of the dark.
To the river, let me go
and fetch my son away

My child, my son ...
