

How You Run

Amos Lee

Oh fighter
Oh fighter
Born to the fire
Left on your own
Oh fighter
Sky igniter
Cry in the night to get you back home
Precious gunner
The stars you're under
The sound of thunder is all that you've known
Disappearing
Skies are clearing
Left you fearing for none but your own

How you run
How you run
How you run

How you run
How you run
How you run

Pretty baby
Pretty baby
Who will save you
Who will you know?
Not your mother
Not your father
A fire fight breaks out in the fog

How you run
How you run
How you run

How you run
How you run
How you run

How you run
How you run
How you run

How you run
How you run
How you run

Pray love
Pray love
Pray love
Pray love
Oh fighter

How you run
How you run
How you run

How you run

How you run
How you run

How you run
How you run
How you run
How you run

Pray love
Pray love
Pray love
Pray love
Oh fighter
