

Into The Clearing

Amos Lee

I done so many people wrong in my time
I was only concerned with getting what was mine
Breaking, forsaking, all of this shit's been taking its toll on me

My soul ain't free
I was always waiting for something more to cure

I wanna burn up
I wanna burn up
I wanna burn up
And disappear into the clearing

I done you wrong, baby, I know, I know
I took the best you had to give
And I left you waiting at the door
All of my lonely nights
Just ain't worth the fight no more
My radar's been busted
Shouldn't be trusted with something so pure

I wanna burn up
I wanna burn up
I wanna burn up
Disappear into the clearing

I can be free again
I can be free again
Into the clearing
To the clearing

I wanna burn up
I wanna burn up
I wanna burn up
And disappear into the clearing
All the silence I've been hearing
