

Madison

Amos Lee

Madi, don't you let it slip away
I'm holding out today that you may be my one and only love
I've been broken down before
But I've never wanted more to not bear the burden on my own

For I can't live my life without you
Madison

I've been drifting through the night
When I walk into the light, I only see you in my shadow
Madi, the reason that I write
Please help me in this fight so I don't have to eat this arrow

For I can't live my life without you
Madison

I've been cutting myself again
I've been cutting myself again

Fuck the feeling, fuck the sin
I want the feeling of your skin as we prepare this holy eucharist
If I could only feel your lips
Oh, and feed upon your kiss, my life would no longer be meaningless

For I can't live my life without you
Madison

For I can't live my life without you
