crimson velvet from my arm slowly seeping swirling down a voice is speaking please be calm so deeply sleeping cause ignorance is bliss ignorance is bliss

from a hole I'm leaking with a red alarm my heart is slowly beating god keeps us safe from harm and just look I'm leaking moments my blackest darkest moments secrets I'm releasing outwards please don't become my dirty traitors

everyone's made errors of judgement everyone's gone and made mistakes everyone's got a hidden secret everyone's done things they later regret

everyone's got a hidden secret
everyone's done things they later regret
