

Oscar Night // Embryo

Amplifier

a big fuck-off hollywood and the paradox of tolerance the engineering of consent an america for americans preserved in amber like genes for dinosaurs the dreams of the powerless

death to hollywood
death to hollywood
to hollywood

there's a big fuck-off Hollywood and a church built by slaves where all glitters and twinkles and hungry are all the whores that you made where the weather's fine and dark clouds all gather for oscars and facelifts

death to hollywood
death to hollywood
let's put ?? to hollywood
to hollywood
