Only luck keeps us out of the coffin.
Mistakes can be fatal, mistakes can be fatal.
This state of affairs is complex and dangerous.
Just who is a friend and who is an enemy?

Oh anaesthetist! You are the servant
Delving into my mind.

I'd be high above the mountaintops,
I'd be deep beneath the ocean blue,
I'd be far across the universe.

Dripping in ecstasy,
Dripping in ecstasy.

The illusionist has made the box empty.
But what is a certainty? What is a certainty?
And into the Saturn, now enter the surgeon
To cut out your dignity, cut out your dignity.

Oh anaesthetist! You are my servant.
My anaesthetist! You are the servant
Delving into my mind.

I'd be high above the mountaintops,
I'd be deep beneath the ocean blue,
I'd be faster than the human eye,
I'd be diving through an endless swoon.

Faraway across the universe,
Faraway across the universe,
Faraway across the universe,
Faraway across the universe.

Get faraway across the universe,
The universe,
The universe,
The universe.

To rest in peace
To rest in peace
To rest in peace.
