Amplifier

Well there ain't no fame and fortune
There's only destiny
Upon the wheel
The wheel of compromise

Driving at the wheel
There is a prisoner
Upon a road of vainness
I'm traveling without a rival

Well the wheel is spinning
Round and round and round and round
Yeah the wheel is spinning
Round and round and round and round
Well the wheel is spinning

Locked up your sprit in a cage
To what you run around in circles
Here upon the wheel
Where are we riding to?

Well the wheel is spinning
Round and round and round and round
Round and round and round and round
Yeah the wheel is spinning
Round and round and round and round
Round and round and round and round
Well the wheel is spinning
Round and round and round and round
Round and round and round and round
Well the wheel is spinning
Round and round and round and round
Round and round and round and round
Well the wheel is spinning

The wheel is spinning
The wheel is spinning
The wheel is spinning
Just keeps on spinning

The wheel is spinning
The wheel is spinning
