

Touch

Amy Grant

There's a fire in the sky
The stars are burning like this passion
Tonight, slowly stirring

You and I
A way we've never known
Now we're here, alone

You're the one in my life and
Nothing matters more to me
On this night than

Learning how do I love you
'Til the morning light
Baby, you and I

Hold me close, fill me, breathe
Touch my heart
Set it free and love will lead us

Lay me down, lift me up
Feel the power
Every time we touch

Don't we wait all our lives
For such a moment
Soul to soul, eye to eye

And all our colors run toward one
'Til there's no dividing light
Between you and I

Hold me close, fill me, breathe
Touch my heart
Set it free and love will lead us

Lay me down, lift me up
Feel the power
Every time we touch

Hold onto water, hold to the tide
Love is an ocean
Love washes over

For you and I
As we dream
On the sea of desire

Hold me close, fill me, breathe
Touch my heart
Set it free and love will lead us

Lay me down, lift me up
Feel the power
Every time we touch

I have waited all my life

For this moment
For this moment
