

Start All Over Again

Amy Meredith

I'm so so caught out
When you think you've got it all
Figured out

Bring me back to the start
When something grabs a hold
There's no way round

And everything's breaking down
And everything's broken now

We'll start all over again over again
We start all over again over again

The world is in your eyes
You're scared to let it in
But you haven't tried

And everything's breaking down
And everything's broken now

We'll start all over again over again
We start all over again over again

We danced with the devil

And you couldn't pretend
You were at the beginning when it started to end
And I never could say maybe you should stay
I need to breathe you in again

We'll start all over again over again
We start all over again over again

We'll start all over again over again
We start all over again over again

We'll start all over again over again

I don't feel the same
No heart should feel this pain

No I don't feel the same
(again and again and again and again)

I don't feel the same
No heart should feel this pain

We'll start all over again
