

Does Anybody?

Amy Pearson

I couldn't come closer,
I couldn't let go,
Didn't wanna get over you,
Don't wanna know what what I know,
And god and known angels,
Stead of facing the truth,
Theres dust on my shadow,
And I to afraid to loose,

Cause we are willing to be torn into,
For one taste of bliss, oh

Does anybody have a heart,
That isn't made of broken parts,
Pieces of love pieces of pain, oh
And though I don't know where to start,
Does anybody have a heart,
That doesn't wanna fall in love again,
Oh oh oh oh,
Does anybody have a heart,

If love is a fire,
I'm a moth to a flame,
And though I've been burned,
I return over and over again,

Cause we are willing to be torn into,
For one taste of bliss oh yeah,

Does anybody have a heart,
That isn't made of broken parts,
Pieces of love pieces of pain, oh
And though I don't know where to start,
Does anybody have a heart,
That doesn't wanna fall in love again,
Oh oh oh oh,
Does anybody have a heart,

Every thought leads to you,
All to leave me wanted more,

Does anybody have a heart,
That isn't made of broken parts,
Pieces of love pieces of pain, oh
Does anybody have a heart,
That isn't made of broken parts,
Pieces of love pieces of pain, oh
And though I don't know where to start,
Does anybody have a heart,
That doesn't wanna fall in love again,
Oh oh oh oh,
Does anybody have a heart,

Does anybody have a heart,
That doesn't wanna fall in love,
Oh oh oh oh
Does anybody have a heart

Does anybody have a heart
