Glow

Amy Ray

Hey did we glow
Did we grow, when we should have been diminishing?
Hey did we burn
Did we yearn, when we should have been extinguishing?

I'll be less, I'll fall short
I am capable of that and more
But it felt good to be bad
It's the best day I ever had

Hey were we blinding
And aligning while the world was declining?
Hey was it golden
Was it stolen, just enough for broken?

I've been less, that's for sure
I am capable of being more
But it felt good to be bad
It's best day I ever day I ever had
