Subway

Amy Ray

[Verse 1]
In the Geminid shower, you flew away through Orion's sky, the m averick queen of our galaxy Play these tunes I wrote for her, you and your golden ear and f lare for words, tell us how you hung the stars
'Cause I am useless in this aging hour
Of broken pipe dreams in a skyline of water towers
I crave the night, can't shake it from my sight
You knew me every time, you knew me every time
On the way, I fell for every mountain range
Every endless sky, every painted pony plain
Every arrowhead this kid could fly
But on the hoof, I found New York
Getting groomed for some big tour
Holding hands with girls down the streets and avenues
Make it count in the music biz
And that's what you did
But me, I am still wandering
'Cause I crave the trying Can't shake it from my mind
You saw me every time

You saw me every time
[Chorus]
"Don't take the subway, baby, let's just walk," we'd say, 'til
our longing turns to day
Remember when Alphabet City was a wilderness to you and me, bef ore Rudy had his way

[Bridge]
And they kept it all shut down
From Jones Beach to the Mercury Lounge
After you left, the shit really hit the fan
So we took it to the streets
Crying, "No justice, no peace"
All for one, one for all, here comes the show
Hey, turn on your radio
Yeah, we took it to the streets
Freedom is not free

[Chorus]
"Don't take the subway, baby, let's just walk," we'd say, 'til
our longing turns to day
Remember when Alphabet City was a wilderness to you and me, bef ore Rudy had his way

[Outro]
This Georgia girl has got it bad for New York
