All Loved Up

Amy Shark

And I hate to take off and land
So you hold my hand
And there's a man next to you with a killer view
Of New York
And somehow you managed to get me talking too much
Yeah there's a rhythm
Yeah there's a feeling

We've been kicking these words around too long
I had a feeling we were close to something big
A deep breath under a baseball cap
One way ticket to a heart attack

And I'm all loved up in the morning
Take me with you
And I'm all loved up in a world I can't explain
And it's gonna be tough cause I got a few things to work through
And I'm all loved up in a world I can't explain
(All loved up in a world I can't explain)
All loved up in a world I can't explain

You talk about girls from the city that I've never met
I act like I know things
I don't
I just like your voice
And I get you, I get you, I get you telling me everything
Yeah there's a rhythm
Yeah there's a feeling

We've been kicking these words around too long
I had a feeling we were close to something big
A deep breath under a baseball cap
One way ticket to a heart attack

And I'm all loved up in the morning
Take me with you
And I'm all loved up in a world I can't explain
And it's gonna be tough cause I got a few things to work through
And I'm all loved up in a world I can't explain
(All loved up in a world I can't explain)
All loved up in a world I can't explain
All loved up in a world I can't explain

Been living in a small town way too long
Growing up just wanna do something big
A deep breath under a baseball cap
One way ticket to a heart attack

And I'm all loved up in the morning
Take me with you
And I'm all loved up in a world I can't explain
And it's gonna be tough cause I got a few things to work through
And I'm all loved up in a world I can't explain
(All loved up in a world I can't explain)
All loved up in a world I can't explain
All loved up in a world I can't explain
