

C'MON

Amy Shark

Baby, I think it's amazing what you're doing out there
Guess I'm just a little jealous I don't have it all
And I was talking to your sister just the other day
She's the only one who ever asks if I'm okay

Lately I've been losing, letting people down a lot
Cutting all the corners, standing on shoulders
Drowning everyone so I can get to the top
All of these things I would like to stop

C'mon
Help me up one more time
C'mon
Give me that nice strong steady arm
'Cause what if I fall and you don't see?
I don't wanna be responsible for me

And I got all these people running around now and lifting me up
One shot and watch the birds all fly away
And I know you'd be good at anything you put your mind to
And I'm sorry for everything you had to see

Ooh, lately I've been losing, letting people down a lot
Cutting all the corners, standing on shoulders
Drowning everyone so I can get to the top
All of these things I would like to stop

C'mon
Help me up one more time
C'mon
Give me that nice strong steady arm
'Cause what if I fall and you don't see?
I don't wanna be responsible for me

(Help me up one more time, c'mon)
(Help me up one more time)

Just another band aid, ripping it off
Totally in love with all that you are and Found another problem 'cause that's what I do
Just want everything to be perfect, don't you?

C'mon
Help me up one more time
C'mon
Give me that nice strong steady arm
'Cause what if I fall and you don't see?

C'mon
Help me up one more time
C'mon
Give me that nice strong steady arm
What if I fall and you don't see?
I don't wanna be responsible for me
(Help me up one more time, c'mon)
I don't wanna be responsible for me
(Help me up one more time, c'mon)
