

Two Friends

Amy Shark

Just had a crazy flashback of a night
Where you were saying words that we know weren't right
And I feel like things have never been the same between us
But who gives a damn
We made out and I lied
To everyone who asked me about that night
And you tried to play it cool-ca-coo-ca-choo, my baby

Maybe we can find a nice place
Somewhere in the middle of secrets and love
Maybe there can be a little romance
Between friends who are falling in love
And maybe you could stay at my place
No one's ever home and I'll lock up the gate
I wish we could tell the whole world
We're two friends who are falling and falling in love

Today was just one of those days, what a bitch
Just to think I got to wake up and do it all again
And you're all stressed out and don't know who to trust
Is everyone gonna find out about us
I don't know, I don't care
And I don't regret one second of it do you
So let's try to play it cool-ca-coo-ca-choo, my baby

Maybe we can find a nice place
Somewhere in the middle of secrets and love
Maybe there can be a little romance
Between friends who are falling in love
And maybe you could stay at my place
No one's ever home and I'll lock up the gate
I wish we could tell the whole world
We're two friends who are falling and falling in love

(We're two friends who are falling and falling in love)
(We're two friends who are falling and falling in love)

So Sarah told Becky
And Becky told Tegan
And Tegan told Sophie
And Sophie's friends with Krystal
And Krystal told Sally
And Sally loves Daniel
And Daniel told Katie
Now Katie fucking hates me

Sarah told Becky
And Becky told Tegan
And Tegan told Sophie
And Sophie's friends with Krystal
And Krystal told Sally
And Sally loves Daniel
And Daniel told Katie
Now Katie fucking hates me

Maybe we can find a nice place
Somewhere in the middle of secrets and love

Maybe there can be a little romance
Between friends who are falling in love
And maybe you could stay at my place
No one's ever home and I'll lock up the gate
I wish we could tell the whole world
We're two friends who are falling and falling in love

We're two friends who are falling and falling in love
We're two friends who are falling and falling in love
