

Let The Music Play

Amy Studt

I paid my dues, I played it your way now this is my way, I'm gonna play
And all of a sudden, I feel like crying and I don't know why
I made a promise, I took a vow
To always hold my head up from the crowd
But it's been so lonely, and I couldn't tell you just how much I've learned

Let the music play
I'm on my way, yeah
Let the music play

And when I'm walking, down Ealing Broadway
I pass the churchyard, that same old way
And I dream in big lights, I dream in colours
And I see you
My mother told me, to not walk to this beat
But I've found that this beat, is right up my street
And they may all laugh, and say that I'm foolish
But I'll never miss when I

Let the music play
I'm on my way, yeah
Let the music play

Let the music play
I'm on my way
Let the music play
