I forget who you are and you love me and I'm not used to being hard It's too much for me

So I'll let it all lie So let's smoke one last cigarette together And let it burn Just one last taste to make it last forever And let it burn right to the end

You forget who I am and you almost convince me
I was somebody special, somebody good and you and I can feel us dying
So let's smoke one last cigarette together
And let it burn
Just one last taste to make it last forever
And let it burn right to the end

You can't be the hero
Stop trying to make this something
You'll never be
You can't just fix this
With the softness of your heart
You can't stand there, telling me that it'll be alright
Nothing's alright, nothing's alright

I forget who you are and you almost convince me you can take me as I am
